November 2019

Ecumenical Thanksgiving Eve Service

Brookfield's oldest continuing town-wide ecumenical service will be held on Wednesday, November 27th at 7:30pm at Valley Presbyterian Church, 21 West Whisconier Road, Brookfield.

This annual service is coordinated by the Brookfield Ecumenical Clergy group. This year the Rev. Paul Lutz, from Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, will deliver the Thanksgiving message.

You are invited to gather together with brothers and sisters from our Brookfield faith communities to pray, sing, and hear God's still-speaking voice as we celebrate with gratitude our great blessings. A time of fellowship and refreshment will be offered afterwards.

Please join us for this special Thanksgiving Eve celebration.

An offering will benefit the Emergency Fuel Assistance Fund of Brookfield Social Services.

Church Council Notes: October 8, 2019

Moderator's Report: LRPC met with Dave Goral (head of the Fellowship Hall Improvement Group—FHIG) and will meet to get a better handle on project vision, including church's & town's needs.

Vice-Moderator's Report: The FHIG plans to develop a list of milestone activities for the project. They will be assessing the architectural designs as far as what is feasible and what needs to be adjusted. We have contact with a group of campaign consultants about financial and project feasibility.

Budget: Jack Brown will be reaching out to the Committee Chairs shortly to start thinking about what annual budget needs may be for the coming year. Stewardship will be asked to do a review of the giver non-pledgers over the last 3 to 5 years in order to help with budgeting.

Church Clerk's Report: Kristi McPadden was officially voted on and approved as Church Clerk.

Committee Reports:

Worship – Organ repair has not yet happened due to repairman illness and Toni moving. Advent wreath workshop and hanging of the greens is scheduled for December 1st. Worship suggests putting money into their budget for Lenten suppers and to continue pairing committees to sponsor these as it worked out well.

CIS – October Thrift Shop proceeds will be donated to the organizations supported by the Fair. SERRV held a clearance sale in September and made $400. The Giving Tree will be put up on November 23rd.

CE – Pen pal program is underway and everyone seems very excited. Building Faith with Legos is going extremely well. Adult classes are going well; looking into a marriage enrichment program. CE representatives attended a program called 'Messy Church' and got great ideas and resources. Messy Church is an intergenerational program that encourages churches to reach out to those in the community who are 'unchurched' to encourage them to attend—suggestion to pair CE with Worship to do a Lenten supper together utilizing this Messy Church approach. Barbara attended a Vibrant Faith Institute seminar. Confirmation Class has begun with 8 confirmands this year.

Stewardship – Pledgers are $3,000 ahead of budget through 6 months, and givers non-pledgers are $10,000 ahead of budget. Sue W would like to see some of the committees who had budget cuts get replenished, but a budget revision is not possible without a Congregational Meeting. The logo that will be placed in the Book of Remembrance (BOR) for the 1757 Legacy Society is only for a bequest received from an estate. November 3rd is the next BOR Sunday, and 1757 Legacy donation names will also be acknowledged. The Passport Program seems to be well received; the objective is to educate the congregation that Stewardship is more than just financial donations.

Church House – Outdated emergency lighting has been replaced with LED lights. Parsonage water pressure reducer was replaced. Kitchen roof is being replaced. Sewer pump tank and the cottage septic were cleaned. Aquarion paved the upper section of the back driveway. Church House is predicting to be over budget by approximately $5,600.

Welcome – Purchased a banner to be hung during the fair and used in future Memorial Day parades. Purchased 250 reusable shopping bags with the church logo to be handed out. Directory in the works and photos are still needed Fellowship – Guided meditation workshop on November 3rd. Fellowship is looking for a theater/movie outing. Coffee hour hosts still needed; the move to "going green" is being initiated during coffee hour.

Historian: Reported the last time the kitchen roof was replaced was 1982.

Yankee Fair: Concerns about thrift shop customers suspected of regularly shoplifting were discussed.

Old Business: Bryn's study leave—a request to fund the second half of a program begun last year. The total cost is $5,150, but Bryn is anticipating $1,000 in grants. Wendy E moved that Church Council approve funding for the Senior Pastor to take two January 2020 courses and complete the second year of supervision needed to complete the Spiritual Direction Certificate Program at University of Redlands School of Theology (San Francisco Theological Seminary) using up to $4,150 from the Christian Growth and Enrichment Fund. The motion was seconded by Beth T and passed. Bryn abstained.

New Business: Fairfield East Association Meeting in Ridgefield on October 30th. A motion was made by Jen W to spend a total of $75 out of the CG&E fund to send 5 people to the FEA meeting—passed unanimously. The cost to send Bryn to the Fall Boundary Training will come out of her Professional Expenses.

Thank you on behalf of Church School & the Christian Education Committee:

With gratitude to our church family members we want to announce that the preliminary numbers for our Math for Mammals fundraiser have us reaching over $1600 with more donations to be collected. These donations will go to purchase a 2nd Gift Ark through Heifer International to help families in need throughout the world.

Thank you for showing up in a BIG way for our Great Pumpkin Challenge evening. 19 families, along with members of our Junior & Senior Youth Fellowship and Christian Education Committee came together to carve 38 pumpkins and raise over $350! The pumpkins were delivered to Trinity Episcopal Church in Newtown to display for the Main Street Halloween. The $350 will go with the other donations raised by organizations around the area to provide summer camp experiences for seriously and chronically ill children at the Hole in the Wall Gang Camp.

Dining For Women is a learning opportunity. So.....
MEN ARE WELCOME TO JOIN US ANYTIME!!

We are off to Swaziland in November to learn more about Young Heroes Foundation. Please join us for a potluck dinner, including a presentation about this project which alleviates poverty by helping female caregivers (often grandmothers) of orphans and vulnerable children to become financially literate, and by creating the opportunity for them to become micro entrepreneurs.

We will meet at 6:00 on November 4th at Dianne Mariano's house. Bring any food item that is convenient for you. KFC is fine or something from the local deli/salad counter. It's the fellowship and educational opportunity that's really important. The concept is that you donate the amount you would have spent had you gone out to dinner that night. Please let either Dianne (or Olivia Quinsland know if you are interested in attending. You can always go online at diningfor-women.org to check this program out more fully.

Why DFW Loves This Project

We love this project's focus on the female caretakers of AIDS orphans. It provides rural Swazi women with access to microloans in order to grow their microenterprises. The structure of the loans will allow the women's groups to self-govern and grow their pool of funds.

Memorial Garden

As the holidays approach, the Memorial Garden Committee would like to remind everyone that no items may be left on the wall. One of the terms and conditions of our Memorial Garden is that no markers, adornments, flowers, etc. are permitted other than the name plaque provided by the committee. We appreciate your understanding.

Have You Gotten Your Passport Yet?

A Question from the Stewardship Committee

At the kickoff of our Fall Stewardship Program, “Get Out of the Boat”, Susan Dodd shared an important message about how perhaps we need just a bit of faith and courage to “get out of the boat”. Remember the disciples that were on the boat in a stormy sea? Jesus spoke to them from the water telling them it was He and not to be afraid. Only Peter had enough faith to get out of the boat and join Jesus. However, Peter's faith wavered and he began to sink. Jesus saved him and asked Peter why he doubted, why he had so little faith. Perhaps the message we can take away from this lesson is that it only takes a bit of faith to get our feet wet, only a bit of faith to lead us to full stewardship. A bit of faith and courage can be the catalyst we need to pursue our vision for our own spiritual growth and the betterment of our local and wider communities. No matter what issues concern you or are important to you; you can make a difference right here at CCB.

Getting Started: Grab Your Passport!

Your passport is your ticket to get out of the boat and get your feet wet. It includes information regarding various faith opportunities here at CCB. Come join other members of your faith family. Perhaps you will discover community or a new or renewed purpose. We know you will enjoy the experience!

Reminders:

- Passports are available at both doors to the meetinghouse, from the church office, and on the table outside the church office.
- This is a commitment -free program!
- Feel free to attend as many meetings or opportunities as you would like. You can even attend the same one more than once.
- Please bring your passport with you as you travel so you can get it stamped by the chairperson or leader.
- Passport program runs through December 15th.
- Participants are invited to attend a Stewardship Dinner in early January!

As Jesus asked the disciples to have faith and get out of the boat, now is the time to show our faith and get our feet wet.

Stewardship Committee

Notes from the Choir Room

Music fills our souls. I can't tell you the number of times the words from an anthem we have sung has come to mind right when I needed those words most.

Singing in a choir is a wonderful way to fill your minds and hearts with sacred words in music. Some of our words come from scripture, while others are penned by poets and writers. Composers carefully set those words to music to express the meaning behind them. Words set to music are a powerful combination that stays in our memories.

We have some wonderful opportunities in our music ministry to experience that combination. You may join a choir at any time. However, if you feel that you cannot commit to singing in the choir every week, you can join us for Lessons and Carols, which happens on December 15 at the 10:30 service. We will dedicate the first half hour or so of our rehearsal to working on Lessons and Carols music. Rehearsals begin at 7:00. Rehearsals are already underway, but there is still time to join us. Just show up on Thursday evening at 7:00.

Wanted: Leftover Halloween Candy!!

You know you don't want any extra Halloween candy sitting at home tempting you, so if you end up with extra why don't you donate it to a good cause? Our SYF group will gladly accept your Halloween leftovers to send in care packages to our college students who are working hard as they head toward finals. If you are willing to part with that extra candy please bring it to the church by Sunday, November 3rd and leave it by the Committee mailboxes marked for SYF Care Packages or give it to Pastor Jen.

Our SYF group and college folks thank you!

Thank you, thank you, thank you!

We are very grateful to all who helped make our October 19th Yankee Fair and Barn Sale a great success. We celebrated 51 years of the annual fair with great enthusiasm and joy! We had absolutely beautiful fall weather and it was such a wonderful day.

It took so many hours and days by countless volunteers to organize the barn, collectibles and used toys. For weeks, cars and trucks lined up in the barn driveway to bring donations while volunteers sorted and decorated and designed the spaces. Quilters gardeners and crafts people were busy as well getting their treasures ready for fair day.

With beautiful mums and pumpkins in the courtyard to games and activities at the Family Fun Zone; from the grill, dispensing morning egg sandwiches; the musicians in the sanctuary and traveling bell ringers entertaining us with wonderful music; from the shoppers in Second Hand Rose to all the visitors to booths in the Church School Wing and Fellowship Hall – our church campus was alive with volunteers, church families and friends from the community.

Special thanks to all those who helped with clean-up activities, setting everything back in place for meetings, church school and worship services.

None of this would have been achieved without the extraordinary talents, generosity and volunteer spirits of each one of you. Thank you, thank you, for making this year's fair such a beautiful success and fun event!

Our Mini Fair before the Holidays will take place on November 24th so come check out some gift ideas and continue to support CCB and our work in the community.

Faithfully,

Carolyn Lindroth and Kara Messenheimer

My Blanket Story

By Margitta Savo

November 1950. Thanksgiving Day. My family arrived in New York City Harbor after an arduous journey by ship across the Atlantic Ocean. We were a refugee family who had just fled Communist East Germany. My father was a wanted man for his involvement in anti-Communist propaganda. Our destination was Iowa, where a Presbyterian Church sponsored us. We knew no English. We carried only a few suitcases.

After disembarking, we boarded a train. Halfway through the journey the train encountered a blizzard. The train had to stop, and power was lost. Our family took out our blankets to wrap ourselves in some warmth. The porter walked through, checking all the passengers and stopped in front of my family. My father was taken away. Several hours passed before he returned after all of the train's blankets were accounted for. The porter thought our family had stolen the blankets from the sleeper cars, as they looked identical. But these blankets were given to us by Church World Service (CWS), from generous donors just like you!

Note from CIS: Your $10 contribution to our CWS Blanket Fund, as you place a Christmas card on the Blanket Fund Tree, will allow CWS to purchase a new warm blanket for a family in need of help today. Keep an eye out for the Blanket Fund Card Tree & Giving Tree as they go up in Brooks Hall at the end of November. Thank you!

CrossWays Deadline

The deadline for the December issue of CrossWays is November 15th. You can e-mail articles to Jeannine McCullough at office@uccb.org or leave them in the CrossWays mailbox outside of the church office. Please e-mail or call Jeannine McCullough, Office Administrator at 203-775-1259 if you have any questions.

As I write, my eyes are transfixed by another glorious autumn New England sunset. I'm looking east, "lifting mine eyes unto the hills" illuminated by the setting sun. Red and yellow maples, green oaks yet to turn, and white birch bark burning golden in the sun's fierce brightness.

I've been savoring the fall colors this year, especially when I've been taking our small dog for her evening walk near sunset. It's good exercise for us both. I get to decompress from the work day at church, often preparing to eat a quick dinner and go back to an evening church meeting. As a Yorkshire Terrier, little Cookie gets to live into God's call for her life – to be our family's brave protector – barking firmly and assertively at every squirrel, chipmunk and falling leaf. When a large bobcat meandered down our driveway the other day, I was afraid she was going to have a heart attack, so frantic was she to break the glass of the front window to get outside and defend us from it!

What a good dog. She is a very good dog. Faithful. Fido. If only we humans could be so obedient and devoted to the service of our loving Master, Jesus.

It feels good to feel our power and usefulness in life, as little Cookie does. There is real joy in knowing we are making a difference, contributing to the common good, fulfilling our call to serve others – this is one of the great things to celebrate about church life, especially at our Yankee Fair.

But we don't do as well, I think, when it comes to sunset times in our lives. We "rage against the dying of the light," as the great Welsh poet Dylan Thomas says. It's terrible to see our loved ones fail in strength or struggle with illness, and having to deal with our own aging or sickness can be worse.

Dylan Thomas's poem urges us to fight hard: "Do not go gentle into that good night, Old age should burn and rave at close of day; Rage, rage against the dying of the light." And so we do, most of us, I think.

In our death-denying culture, we worship youth and we celebrate beauty and vitality. We buy "age-defying" makeup and we celebrate 100-year-olds who run road races or get married to 20-somethings – and when our elders get cancer, we push them to never give up, to try to beat it. It's much harder, and even counter-cultural, to choose to look for the beauty and dignity in life's inevitable changes of season. What if we didn't "rage against the dying of the light," but instead stood in solemn awe and wonder at the beauty of the setting sun, gazing with hope into eternity, celebrating with thanksgiving the stunning beauty of lives nearing their end? It's so hard to do, especially as we deeply love, we deeply grieve as we begin to see our loved ones fading.

In November, winter's darkness draws near. Yet, like our Pilgrim ancestors, we are called to worship in gratitude – yes, for the bountiful harvest, the plump turkey and pumpkin pie – but also for the precious gift of life itself. We lift up names of loved ones on Book of Remembrance Sunday, Nov. 3; we gather at our long-time member Margitta Savo's memorial Nov. 9; we honor veterans Nov. 11 – many of whom have passed away. These are all celebrations, but like darkening autumn skies, they have a somber tone. I pray they lead us into a deeper place of thanksgiving and even joy, as we look toward the hope of Advent and Christmas, and the returning of the light in the New Year.

Board of Deacons

Your Deacon Branch provides a way for you to have a specific member of the Board with whom to relate. If you have requests or concerns that you'd like to share with a lay person, your Deacon is available. Naturally, if you're more comfortable calling one of the other deacons, or one of your pastors, please feel free to do so. Such requests or concerns might include:

- a need for prayer
- a request for help (transport to a doctor's appointment, church function, etc.)
- a sorrow (illness, accident, death)
- a joy (a birth, graduation, upcoming wedding, etc.)
- something that particularly pleases you, or would better meet your needs in the worship service

Remember, if you don't know your Deacon, ask someone to introduce you. He or she will look forward to meeting you – in church or out!
